BUSINESS AND ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM

On June 25, 2022, the Executive Director, Mrs. Tinuade Akinshola and Ms. Renee P. Cooper, Esq. shared their business and economic development expertise via a virtual seminar. This free virtual program was designed to assist participants to gain an understanding of the various small business programs (DBE/SBE/MBE), the laws, policies and procedures towards achieving success in doing business with the local, state and federal government. Also, the attendees gained insight into the different business structures they can operate, as well as the reason for favoring one over the other. See this event's video on www.sherisesintlinc.com

SRII'S SEPTEMBER 2022 FUNDRAISING EVENT

"A Day Party to Benefit Women and Girls in Our Local and Global Community"

On September 17, 2022, She Rises Int'l, Inc. organized a fundraising event in Burtonsville, Maryland to benefit women and girls locally and globally. Our network, partners and sponsors trooped in from far and near to register their presence and support of the work SRII does. The organization pointed out to the attendees, potential funding areas including:

- Hosting programs encouraging female entrepreneurship, leadership, career readiness, crisis intervention/legal assistance in Maryland, USA
- Financing vocational & trade school for women & girls in Southwest, Nigeria

- Conducting economic and career readiness programs for women & girls in Southwest, Nigeria

- Funding for college scholarships for Ugandan girls

Consequently, we are able to finalize the Memorandum of Understanding with our local partners whose collaboration is required to achieve SRII's projected end for the community we serve. Thank you to all our sponsors, partners and families who continues to fund these programs.

2022 Outstanding Community Leadership Honorees

Similarly, at this event, She Rises Int'l, Inc. acknowledged and celebrated four (4) of the great State of Maryland's Outstanding Leaders. Their tremendous and unwavering dedication to women and girls in the community, distinguished them from others. The 2022 Outstanding Community Leadership Honorees include: Ms. Deborah Owens, the Founder and CEO of WealthyU, an organization that assists high-achieving women to build their investment portfolios astronomically; Montgomery County Council Member William Opeyemi Jawando, an Attorney, lifelong Activist, and compassionate Community Leader with unique golden heart for the minority and low-income population; Dr. Toyin Opeasanmi (a/k/a Dr. "O"), M.D., the CEO/Medical Director at Gennesaret Medical Center in Maryland. She is a Board-Certified HIV Specialist (AAHIVS) and currently sits on the board of Baltimore City Medical Society. She continues to support women (and the community) with her "medical Mondays" weekly virtual programs which brings together amazing professional and experts in medicine, law and business for total wellness of the community; and State Attorney Aisha Braveboy of Prince George's County, Maryland, whose tireless effort and zero tolerance for crimes has led and continues to lead Prince George's County into becoming a safe, secured and livable community for all. State Attorney Braveboy's "Not One Campaign" is instrumental and a force to be reckoned with towards curbing, preventing and eliminating domestic violence in the community.

No wonder, She Rises Int'l, Inc.'s Board nominated these lots as worthy of the Outstanding Leadership Honor. Enjoy some of the pictures shared below and click the link for more.
